BECAUSE the sun is out to-day
Don't put your overcoat away.
And on the shelf your flannels fling,
Because, you know, this isn't spring.

Do not miss the lecture "The Boss Devil of America," Friday night.

The steamer Katie Prather has entered the Manchester and Vanceburg trade.

The usual prayer meeting will be held at the Southern Methodist Church this evening at half-past seven o'clock.

DR. TRACY closes his course of lectures on Friday night with a popular lecture; "The Boss Devil of America." The press speaks well of it.

OLIVER WILLIAMS was convicted in the Circuit Court, yesterday, of selling liquor to minors, on two counts and was fined $50 in each case. He was sent to jail at hard labor.

WILLIAM NEAL, the last of the Ashland murderers, was taken to Grayson for trial, on the 15th inst. He was guarded by a small posse of men armed with shot-guns. Neal still maintains his innocence and professes to be confident of acquittal.

MARSHAL BOSTON, colored, who committed an outrage on the person of Mrs. Lucy Connors, also colored, in this county last October, was tried for the crime yesterday, and was convicted. The penalty was fixed by the jury at confinement in the penitentiary for ten years.

SAYS the Paris Kentuckian: A. P. Maupin, of Mason County, a tobacco raiser, settled in Woodford in 1880. His crop of 1880 was 13,500 pounds on eight and one-half acres, which he sold at 10 1/2 cents; second crop, spring of 1881, dry year, 7,519 pounds on ten acres, price 11 cents; third crop, 1882, 11,835 pounds on ten acres, price 12 1/2 cents; fourth crop, 1883, 12,511 pounds on twelve acres, price 15 cents.

PERSONALS.

Dr. Wm. Nelson, of Cincinnati, is in the city.

Dr. W. H. McGranaghan, of Peoria, Ill., is visiting his friends in Maysville.

Mrs. John Lovel left yesterday to visit friends at Vanceburg. She will be absent for several weeks.

Miss Theodosia Rennie, of Natchez, Miss., and Miss Anna Bigger, of Manchester, are the guests of Miss Anna M. Atkinson.

Appellate Convention.

Judge Wall returned from Winchester last night and from him we learn that the Appellate Convention for this district will be held at Winchester, Ky., on Wednesday, June 4th, at one o'clock p. m., and the county meetings of the forty counties, composing the district, will be held on Saturday, May 24, 1884. The Knott vote was adopted as a basis of representation, which gives Mason County ten delegates. Twenty-three counties were represented at the meeting and Maysville would have been selected as the place had not the vote of Bracken, Fleming and Greenup been cast against her. The chairman of those counties sent their proxies to J. Stone Walker, of Richmond, Ky., who is a relative of Judge Richard Reid, and the votes of those counties was cast for Richmond as the place of meeting causing Maysville to be dropped, and resulting in the selection of Winchester. Previous to the meeting, Judge Wall had requested the proxies from the chairman of the above counties with the desire of securing the convention for Maysville, but the proxies were sent as above.

JUDGE REID COWHIDED

By John J. Cornellison, of Mt. Sterling, on account of a Decision Rendered in the Superior Court.

Mr. STERLING, Ky., April 16.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon Judge J. Cornellison, a lawyer of this city, violently set upon Judge Richard Reid, a Judge of the Superior Court, and cowhided him severely on account of a decision rendered by the Supreme Court. The affair has created an intense sensation here.

This afternoon Judge Reid went to Mr. Cornellison's office to assist him in looking over the papers in the case. Cornellison seemed to be brooding over the matter, and said that the decision of the Superior Court was a great outrage to him and accused Reid of being responsible for that decision. Then, as if by a sudden and irresistible impulse, he arose and began to beat Judge Reid who was sitting down, with a hickory stick. Reid attempted to defend himself with a small cane he had in his hand, but Cornellison knocked this out of the Judge's hand and then drew a cowhide from under his coat and struck Judge Reid with it a number of times quite rapidly and savagely.

Judge Reid claims to have been unarmed, and says he has every reason to believe that Cornellison was armed and would have killed him if he had offered any serious resistance.

Mr. Cornellison, when seen, said he had merely given Judge Reid a severe cowhiding, which he deserved, and that he regretted the necessity of having to do it, as they are both leading members of the Christian Church.

The town has never been so badly torn up over any affair as it has over this, and the probability is that the end is not yet.

Sales of Land.

The following transfers of real estate have been recorded at the office of the County Clerk, since our last report:

Patrick Monahan and wife to Geo. W. Dye, 100m Sardin; consideration $275.
Elizabeth Workman and husband, to Asbury Curtis, the undivided half interest of grantor's in seven acres of land on Two Lick Creek; consideration $35.

John P. Campbell to John S. Perkins, one hundred and ten acres and twenty-eight poles of land Stone Lick Creek; consideration $85.

Hiram Curtis and wife to Hiram Stewart, ninety-four and one-fourth acres of land on Kennedy's Creek; consideration $2,500.
Mary E. Martin and husband to George N. Crawford, house and lot on east side of Lee street, between Second and Third; consideration $800.

James Davis to W. T. McDaniel and others, ninety-four acres and fifteen poles of land on Mill Creek; consideration $7,700.

W. D. Hixon, executor, and others to Mary L. Dismitt, twenty-two acres, twenty-two rods and ten poles of land; consideration $2,100.

W. H. Politt to H. H. Collins, lot 45x165 feet on Second street, 5th ward; consideration $800.

John T. Jefferson and wife and others to Henry C. Thackston, eighty-six and one half acres of land on Shannon Creek; consideration $4,325.

John T. Jefferson and wife to W. W. Tuel, seventy-seven acres, three rods and twenty-one poles of land on Shannon Creek; consideration $4,125.

The Same Old Sound.

Ed. Bulletin: The humorous account of Saturday's Convention, by Free Lance, in yesterday's paper, is very good. There is also a practical view to be taken. The talk about "collars" was superfluous, transparent. No true man, Republican or Democrat, wears any collar but his own. But the crack of the whip, the same old sound, though now grown somewhat unfamiliar, was easily recognized and grated harshly on many a veteran Republican's ears in that hall. A lesson is needed. It shall be given. O. N.

ADJACENT COUNTIES.

VANCEBURG, LEWIS COUNTY.

Elder Myers was taken suddenly sick on Sunday and unable to fill his appointment at Toltessboro.

THE DAILY BULLETIN is in demand every evening before tea. The porter of the Handy has many customers, and the little one cent daily.

The Executive Committee controlling the Lewis County Sunday School Convention will meet at an early day to elect a secretary and set the time for holding the convention. Col. Rand's engagements prevent him from serving the convention this year.

Saturday night Mrs. Stella Means was thrown from her carriage over an embankment back of Concord and sustained a fracture of the skull, broken cheek and injury to the spine, she was carried on a litter to her father's, A. M. Lang, in an unconscious condition, and was taken to Monday. At 11 a. m. she resumed consciousness, but little hopes are entertained for her recovery. Mrs. Means was one of the most entertaining and accomplished ladies in Lewis County and has host of admirers and friends. Her misfortune will likely disfigure her for life. She was a favorite with everybody. The whole community deplores her misfortune.

The court house here reminded the hearers that pursuant to notice published they must come forward and make a selection of delegates from each precinct to the Catlettsburg convention. By previous arrangement, Judge A. W. Fryer was to be chairman and A. H. Parker secretary. This was motioned and carried, of course. Who would dare question the arrangements of the ring.

The chairman read from a paper given him the names of those who were to be delegates from the eighteen precincts in Lewis County, forty miles apart.

When the same was announced Judge Thomas motioned the delegates to Catlettsburg should also represent the county at Louisville. His motion was law and, of course, it carried. By actual count there were fifteen Republicans and fifteen Democrats present. About ten were the Thomas collar.

On Monday Judge Thomas, Tinker Mitchell, Harry Parker and Joe Sparks took a carriage and went to Portsmouth so as to be in Catlettsburg on Tuesday, as no boats passed up Monday.

Judge Thomas omitted his usual resolution endorsing Arthur's administration.

Another significant fact was that the meeting was called for late Saturday, the 12th, and the convention to be held on the 15th a hundred miles away. Now what chance had a Republican at a distant point in the county to go or even to know he was a delegate, then the object is obvious. The Grant and Blaine adherents are sat down upon with no show to be heard or represented in the State convention. They observe that these same delegates represent Judge Thomas and not the free Republican element of Lewis County.

It is useless to hold Republican conventions, meetings or consultations in Lewis County so long as the boss rules and followers say amen! So this county is bound hand and feet and is sealed and delivered to the Arthur-hog of office-hog when it is for Blaine, Lincoln, Grant or any other man rather than Arthur.

W. W. Higgins, a prominent physician of Bentonville, Ohio, has been arrested on a charge of bastardy made by Miss Maggie Bradley. Higgins is a married man.

First Cincinnati—"What a fearful riot that was. I lost several dear friends in it." Second Cincinnati—"Were you hurt yourself?" "Yes; I was wounded while standing on my own doorstep, but only slightly. Were you hurt?" "Oh! not at all. I was in a safe place while the rioting was going on." "Where were you?" "In jail."—Philadelphia Call.

No remedy for Catarrh has met with such success as Papillion Catarrh Cure; it never fails and does its duty thoroughly—not by relieving temporarily—but by curing permanently. It does not smart or irritate. For sale by J. James Wood and J. C. Pecor & Co.

It is no wonder that children refuse to take the nauseous remedies generally administered as worm medicine. It is a cruel, heathen punishment to give it to them when Will's World Worm Candy can be had at the nearest drug store. They never refuse to take that as it resembles the ordinary stick candy, and is free from taste of medicine.

Boots, Shoes and Slippers.

C. B. Clift & Co. have the largest and best selected stock of boots, shoes and slippers for the spring of 1884, ever shown in Maysville and at prices to suit people. We only ask your inspection to convince you that we can make it to your interest to trade with us.

C. B. CLIFT & Co., 39, East Second street.

Begin Early in Life.

To cleanse the teeth with Sazodent, and you will be repaid in maturer years and very probably in age, by the possession of sound molars and incisors, which will give you a more youthful look than you would otherwise have, and enable you to chew without incurring the penalty of a toothache. And when you have children, use the same fragrant preparation and they will have ample cause to be grateful to you. Don't omit it for a single day.
